PREFACE.

IN presenting SONGS OF THE BIBLE to the public, we would call attention to the following facts

1st. The growing interest in the study of the Bible has created a demand for genuine Bible Hymns and sacred music of a superior character, adapted to the voice and capacity of the Sunday-school public.

2nd. The Editors herein hope to meet this want, by presenting Hymns embodying earnest Bible truths, nearly all of them having been written upon Scripture texts, chosen and selected for the various contributors by the Editors, in order to secure a great variety, applicable to every Bible lesson and Sunday-school occasion. These Hymns were carefully reviewed by several eminent theologians and superintendents, with a view to correct all ideas that were not entirely consistent with the teachings of the Bible.

3rd. The aim throughout has been to present "The truth as it is in Jesus," accompanied with pure devotional, soul-stirring music, adapted to the sentiment of the Hymns, yet lively, and suited to the register and capacity of children's voices. A long experience in conducting Sunday-school musical conventions and the labors in the home Sunday-schools, have rendered us valuable aid in the preparation of the work. All suggestions thus received have been put to practical use. The children are not carried to heaven on "flowery beds of ease," but are encouraged to "Be strong in the Lord," "Put on the whole armour," and, "Trusting in Jesus," to "Go forward" and "Fight the good fight."

4th. In the book will be found, besides the Songs for the School, Devotional Songs, Infant Class Songs, pieces for Christmas, Thanksgiving, Anniversaries, Temperance Meetings, Celebrations and other occasions; with index of subjects, Bible texts, and devotional and infant-class songs, besides the general index, which will greatly facilitate the use of the book. The Devotional Songs are intended not only for the Sunday-school, but the prayer meeting and home circle.

5th. With the above features of the work, great variety also has been secured, both in hymns and music, by the number of contributors.

Grateful to all who have kindly assisted us in the preparation of this work, by contributions of hymns or music, and looking for the blessing of the Master upon our efforts, we send forth these SONGS OF THE BIBLE hoping they may be the means of joy, gladness and blessing wherever they go.

WORKING, O CHRIST, WITH THEE.

W. A. OGDEN.

Maestoso.

1. Working, O Christ, with thee, Working with thee; Un - worthy, sin - ful, weak, Though we may be;
 2. A - long the cit - y's waste, Working with thee; Our ca - ger foot-steps haste, Like thee to be;
 3. Sav - ior, we wea - ry not, Working with thee; As hard as thine our lot Can nev - er be;
 4. So let us la - bor on, Working with thee; Till earth to thee is won, From sin set free;

Rit.

Our all to thee we give, For thee a - lone would live, And by thy grace achieve, Working with thee.
 The poor we gath - er in, The outcasts raise from sin, And la - bor souls to win, Working with thee.
 Our joy and com - fort this, "Thy grace suf - fi - cient is;" This changes toil to bliss, Working with thee.
 Till men, from shore to shore, Re - ceive thee, and a - dore, And join us ev - er - more, Working with thee.

N. B.—This tune can be sung as well to the words, "Nearer, my God, to thee."

"BEHOLD WHAT MANNER OF LOVE."

Music by
W. A. OGDEN."Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God."—1 John iii, 1.

1. Behold what manner of Love, The Father hath bestowed, To send his Son from above, To pay the debt we owed.
2. Behold what manner of Love, To purchase us with blood, To promise a Home above, And call us sons of God.
3. Behold what manner of Love, To creatures dead in sin, To open the gates above, That we may enter in.

He left the courts of glo - ry, For sinners to be slain, While angels told the sto - ry To Shepherds on the plain.
No earthly parent knoweth, Nor can such love be - stow, As that the Father showeth To sin - ners here be - low.
Father, for death prepare us, And when we pass a - way, Let ho - ly an - gels bear us Up to the courts of day.

CHORUS.

Bright an - gels told That Christ . . . had come,
Bright an - gels send To bear . . . our souls,
Bright angels told the sto - ry, To shepherds on the plain, That Christ had come from glory, For sin - ners to be slain.
Oh, send thy shining angels, To meet us when we die, To bear our ransomed spirits, Up to our home on high.

Sing words in Italics to 1st and 2d verses.

 2. Thanks, thanks for thy word, for the sweet Sabbath day, For the teachers who lead us in wisdom's glad way,
 3. Should life be con - tin - u'd till manhood comes on, Till the scenes of its noon-tide, like shad-ows, are gone;

We seek thee right ear - ly, our guide thou shalt be; All the years of that youth we now of - fer to thee.

WE HAVE TAKEN UP THE CROSS.

Words by E. R. LATTA.

W. A. OGDEN.

"And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple," LUKE xiv. 27.

1. Je-sus, we are thy dis-ci-ples, For thy guidance now we plead, We with joy-ful hearts will fol-low,
 2. We have nothing good to of-fer, All our goodness is but dross; But as Je-sus has com-mand-ed,
 3. Je-sus, thou didst bless the children, When with mortals thou didst dwell; And although to heav'n ascended,

Where-so-ev-er thou dost lead, Thou didst bear the cross for sin-ners, Up the mountain's rug-ged side;
 We have ta-ken up the cross; Worldly gain and world-ly pleasures We as tri-fles cast a-side;
 Thou dost love us just as well; Where thou ledest, we will fol-low; Keep us ev-er near thy side;

CHORUS.

We thy cross will take up dai-ly, Blessed Je-sus, cru-ci-fied.
 To be counted thy dis-ci-ples; Blessed Je-sus, cru-ci-fied. For a crown of life in glo-ry,
 Take us to the heavenly mansions, Blessed Je-sus, cru-ci-fied.

We have coun- ted all but loss, We are wit- ness - es for Je- sus, We have ta- ken up the cross.

1. The Twelve with Jesus sat at meat, Before our debt of sin was paid;

SING PRAISES, SING PRAISES.

Words by NETTIE A. BARNARD.

W. A. OGDEN.

With spirit.

"All thy works shall praise the Lord. PSALMS cxliv. 10."

1. Sing praises, sing praises, let songs fill the air, Wing upward the soul in an anthem of prayer;
 2. Not an-gels a-lone to the glo-ri-ous King Their off-rings of praise and thanksgiving should bring,
 3. Sing praises, sing praises! Thy creatures, O Lord, Shall swell the glad chorus with wondrous ac-cord;

The earth in her glo-ri-ous fullness adores, And heaven the rich strains of her har-mo-ny pours.
 But all, un-to whom his rich boun-ty gave breath, And all He preserves, or de-liv-ers from death.
 Thy praise shall be hymned by a num-berless throng, From childhood's sweet chant to the se-raph-im's song.

To God, the all Father, we lift in full trust, The voice, while the form we would bow in the dust;
 The bird-ling, with throat full of mu-sic, that swings On slen-der-est twig melting mel-o-dy sings,
 The voice of thy works, in a un-ion sublime, Shall fill with thy praises the full-ness of time,

We know he is pleased in re-ceiving the praise We give un - to him in our morning of days.
The trees and the flow-ers and every green field, Their Ma-ker's rich glo - ry, un-ceas - ing - ly yield.
E - ter - ni - ty's morn shall but herald the day, Whose anthems of praise shall con - tin - ue for aye.

"Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children." EPH. v. 1.

1. We are on - ly lit - tle children, But Je - sus loves us too; And for our childish hearts and hands, He has a work to do.
2. There are little words of kindness, Our lips must speak alone, And little acts that we must do, Or they will not be done.
3. We are on - ly lit - tle children, But 'round the shining throne Stand thousand others, such as we, Through Jesus' love alone.

Not a lone for men and women, Is the pathway straight and plain, Through duty to bright mansions, Where there's no blight, nor stain.
And lit - tle byways, where the feet Of a - ged can-not go, Where the Savior's sweet compassion Our lives the best can show.
And if we serve him tru-ly, And serve him, when we die, He'll send a shin-ing an-gel, And take us to the sky.

Music by W. A. OGDEN.

1. Open the door for the children, Tender-ly gather them in, In from the highways and hedges, In from the places off in.
2. Open the door for the children, See! they are coming in throngs; Bid them sit down to the banquet, Teach them your beautiful songs.

Some are so young and so helpless, Some are so hungry and cold; Open the door for the children, Gather them into the fold.
 Pray you the Father to bless them, Pray you that grace may be given; Open the door for the children, "Of such is the kingdom of heaven."
 Some are so young and so helpless, Some are so hungry and cold; Open the door for the children, Gather them into the fold.

1. All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall!
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.
2. Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall!
Hail him, who saves you by his grace,

And crown him Lord of all.

Come, ye disconsolate.

1. Come, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish,
Come to the mercy-seat, fervently
kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here
tell your anguish,
Earth has no sorrow that heaven can-

saying—
Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot cure.

3. Here see the Bread of Life: see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure
from above;
Come to the feast prepared—come, ever knowing,
Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

From Greenland's icy mountains.

1. From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a balmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.
2. What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle—
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile?—
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone.
3. Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,—
Shall we to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation! Oh, Salvation!—
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation,
Has learned Messiah's name.
4. Waft—waft ye winds! his story,
And you, ye waters roll,—
Till like a sea of glory
It spreads from pole to pole!
Till o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign!

There is a fountain filled with blood.

1. There is a fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.
2. The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, as vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.
3. Dear, dying Lamb, thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed church of God
Be saved, to sin no more.
4. E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream,
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.
5. Then in a nobler, sweeter song
I'll sing thy power to save,
When this poor, lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave.

From all that dwell below the skies.

1. From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.
2. Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends thy word:
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till sun shall rise and set no more.
3. Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring,
In songs of praise divinely sung;
The great salvation loud proclaim,
And shout for joy the Saviour's name.
4. In every land begin the song;
To every land the strains belong:
In cheerful sounds all voices raise,
And fill the world with loudest praise.

Jesus, lover of my soul.

1. Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the billows near me roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour hide,
Till the storm of life is past.
Safe into the haven guide:
Oh! receive my soul at last!
2. Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee:
Leave! O, leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me:
All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.
3. Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick and lead the blind:
Just and holy is thy name;
I am all unrighteousness:
False and full of sin I am;
Thou art full of truth and grace.
4. Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart;
Rise to all eternity.

America.

1. My country! 't is of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side,
Let freedom ring.

2. My native country! thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.
3. Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.
4. Our father's God o thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright,
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.

There is a land of pure delight.

1. There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
2. There everlasting spring abides,
And never-with'ring flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.
3. Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dress'd in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan roll'd between.
4. Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

Am I a Soldier of the Cross?

1. Am I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the lamb,
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?
2. Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease;
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
3. Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?
4. Since I must fight if I would reign,
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove.

1. Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quick'ning powers;
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.
2. Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys;
Our souls, how heavily they go,
To reach eternal joys.
3. In vain we tune our formal songs,—
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
4. Father, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate;
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?
5. Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quick'ning powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.
